

Carnage&Glory!!
Napoleonic Battle Scenario

Ten [10] Feet

Ground Scale: 1" = 25 paces

The Redoubt – September 7, 1812

French [de Beauharnais] Tactical Objectives:

Secure and hold the Redoubt [20 points] and inflict losses on the enemy army morale [2 points for each 1% loss in army morale].

French Victory Status:

Victory status will be confirmed by C&GII, inconclusive, pyrrhic, minor or major victory.

If the French achieve more than 50 points of their tactical objectives and the Russians record a major victory, this will be reduced to a minor victory, and if the Russians records a minor victory, this will be reduced to an inconclusive action.

If the French achieve 75 points of their tactical objectives and they record a minor victory, this will be increased to a major victory, and if the result is an inconclusive action, this will be increased to a minor victory.

Russian [Barclay de Tolly] Tactical Objectives:

Retain possession the Redoubt [30 points], and inflict losses on the enemy army morale [2 points for every 1% loss in army morale].

Russian Victory Status:

Victory status will be confirmed by C&GII, inconclusive, pyrrhic, minor or major victory.

If the Russian force achieves more than 50 points of their tactical objectives and the French record a major victory, this will be reduced to a minor victory, and if the French record a minor victory, this will be reduced to an inconclusive action.

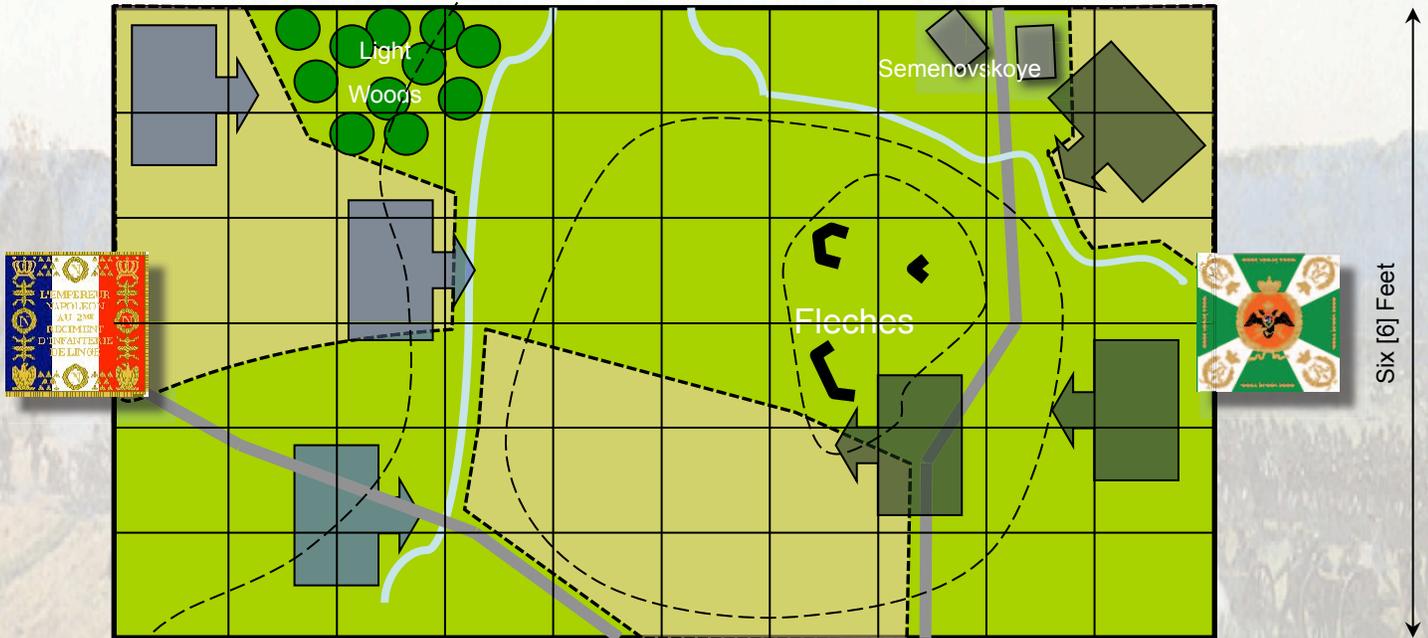

If the Russians achieve more than 75 points of their tactical objectives and they record a minor victory, this will be increased to a major victory, and if the result is an inconclusive action, this will be increased to a minor victory.

Ten [10] Feet

Ground Scale: 1" = 25 paces

The Fleches – September 7, 1812

French [Davout] Tactical Objectives:

Secure and hold the southern Fleche [15 points], secure and hold the northern Fleche [10 points], secure and hold the eastern Fleche [5 points] and inflict losses on the enemy army morale [2 points for each 1% loss in army morale].

French Victory Status:

Victory status will be confirmed by C&GII, inconclusive, pyrrhic, minor or major victory.

If the French achieve more than 50 points of their tactical objectives and the Russians record a major victory, this will be reduced to a minor victory, and if the Russians records a minor victory, this will be reduced to an inconclusive action.

If the French achieve 75 points of their tactical objectives and they record a minor victory, this will be increased to a major victory, and if the result is an inconclusive action, this will be increased to a minor victory.

Russian [Bagration] Tactical Objectives:

Retain possession of the southern Fleche [20 points], retain possession of the northern fleche [15 points], retain possession of the eastern fleche [5 points] and inflict losses on the enemy army morale [2 points for every 1% loss in army morale].

Russian Victory Status:

Victory status will be confirmed by C&GII, inconclusive, pyrrhic, minor or major victory.

If the Russian force achieves more than 50 points of their tactical objectives and the French record a major victory, this will be reduced to a minor victory, and if the French record a minor victory, this will be reduced to an inconclusive action.

If the Russians achieve more than 75 points of their tactical objectives and they record a minor victory, this will be increased to a major victory, and if the result is an inconclusive action, this will be increased to a minor victory.

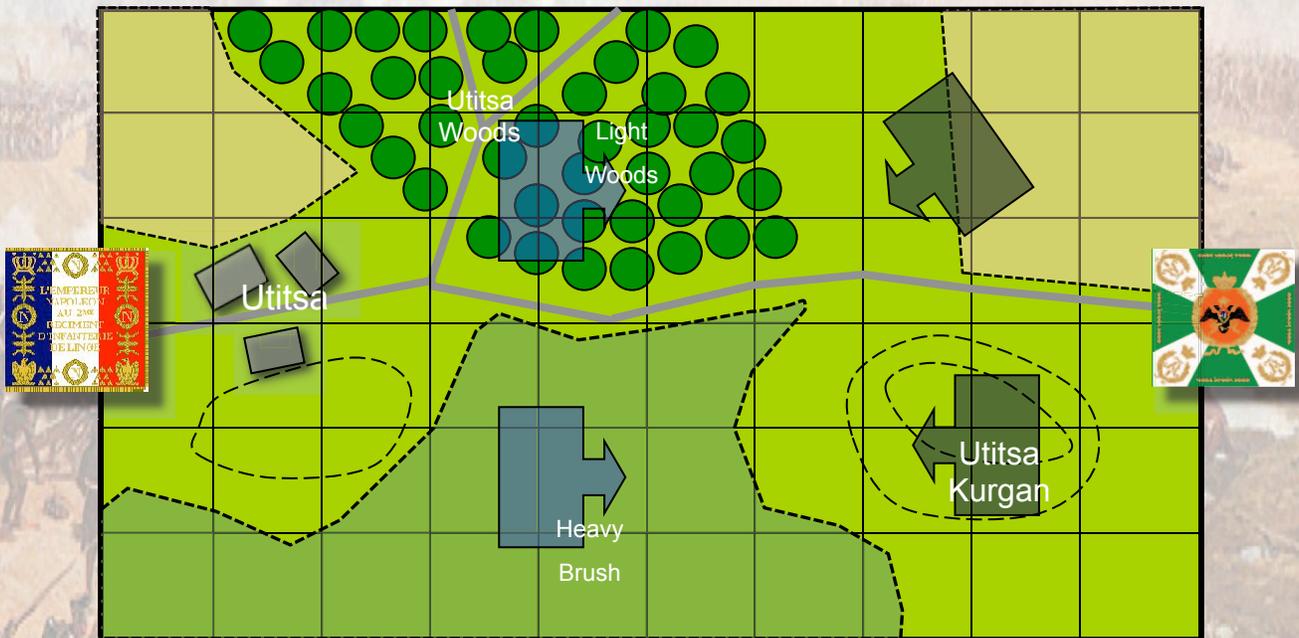

Ten [10] Feet

Ground Scale: 1" = 25 paces

Utiza– September 7, 1812

Six [6] Feet

French [Poniatowski] Tactical Objectives:

Secure and hold the village of Utitsa [5 points], secure and hold the Utitsa Kurgan to the east of Utitsa [20 points] and inflict losses on the enemy army morale [2 points for each 1% loss in army morale].

French Victory Status:

Victory status will be confirmed by C&GII, inconclusive, pyrrhic, minor or major victory.

If the French achieve more than 50 points of their tactical objectives and the Russians record a major victory, this will be reduced to a minor victory, and if the Russians records a minor victory, this will be reduced to an inconclusive action.

If the French achieve 75 points of their tactical objectives and they record a minor victory, this will be increased to a major victory, and if the result is an inconclusive action, this will be increased to a minor victory.

Russian [Tuchkov] Tactical Objectives:

Retain possession of th Utitsa Kurgan [20 points], retain possession of the Utitsa Woods[15 points] and inflict losses on the enemy army morale [2 points for every 1% loss in army morale].

Russian Victory Status:

Victory status will be confirmed by C&GII, inconclusive, pyrrhic, minor or major victory.

If the Russian force achieves more than 50 points of their tactical objectives and the French record a major victory, this will be reduced to a minor victory, and if the French record a minor victory, this will be reduced to an inconclusive action.

If the Russians achieve more than 75 points of their tactical objectives and they record a minor victory, this will be increased to a major victory, and if the result is an inconclusive action, this will be increased to a minor victory.

